STLE’s Corporate Member program delivers thousands of dollars in savings on the society’s most valuable products and services. Educate your employees, promote your business, market your products, raise your industry profile and gain access to an international professional network.

STLE offers both Corporate Member Basic and Corporate Member Premium plans. Benefits include:

- Individual membership in STLE—the lubricant industry’s premier technical society.
- Registrations to the STLE Annual Meeting & Exhibition—the largest technical event in the lubricants industry.
- Significant savings on booth space at the Annual Meeting Exhibition.
- Significant savings on the Annual Meeting’s Commercial Marketing Forum—promote your newest products and services.
- Tickets to the Annual Meeting’s Presidents Luncheon, an international networking event attracting 800 lubricant professionals.
- Annual Meeting education courses, each one covering a lubricant-specific technical area.
- STLE University online technical-training courses—the most convenient way for your employees to learn.
- STLE University Webinars—each one addressing a lubricant technical topic.
- Corporate Member listing on STLE’s Web site, identifying your company as an industry leader.
- Choice of an STLE technical-reference book to add to your library.
- Company-wide subscription to the TLT digital magazine, rated as the No. 1 STLE member benefit.
- Corporate Member lapel pin—let others know your company supports STLE and the lubricants industry!
