

Instructions to access the recorded webinar on VOCs

To access the recording, please visit www.stle.org and go to the Publications & Research tab at the top of the page. Click on STLE Store. Click on “STLE University” Department which is located at the top of the panel on the right hand side of the page. Click on the link “Industry Insight Webinar Series: VOCs.” You will need to log in to “purchase” the webinar (it is listed for $0.00). Click “add to your products.” Click “select freight.” Click “products total.” Click “check out” and then click “check out” on the next page. You will receive a purchase receipt, and you will have access through the STLE University.

If you are not a member of STLE or you do not have a username and password, you will need to create an account. Signing up as a nonmember is free of charge. To create an account, you should start by clicking on the “Members Only” link at the top of the home page. On the left hand panel, you will see the option “Create an Account.” Click on that link. Scroll to the bottom of the page and click on the link for “Non-Members.” You are directed to this page <http://online.stle.org/source/members/cMemberInsert.cfm>. Fill out the form and you will have access to the site and webinar. It is all free. Membership costs a fee, but just joining our website does not cost a thing. Once you sign up you can go to the STLE Store and “purchase” the webinar. The webinar is listed on the store for $0.00 (FREE). Follow the steps below to view the webinar.

If you are a current or previous STLE member, you may already have this information. Just enter your member ID and password. Your username is your member ID number and your password in the first two letters of your last name followed by your member ID number. If you do not know your login information, you can look it up by going to the “Members Only” link at the top of the home page. On the left hand panel, click on “Create an Account.” Once there, you will see a section for “Current and Previous STLE Members.” Follow those instructions. If you do not know your login and password, it will provide you with that information. Once you have your login information, you can go to the STLE Store and “purchase” the webinar. The webinar is listed on the store for $0.00 (FREE). Follow the steps below to view the webinar.

To view the recording, you will visit the STLE home page at www.stle.org and click on the Members Only section. Once there, you will need to log in and then click on The STLE University tab on the lower left hand panel. Once you are in the STLE University, you will see a listing of your different education products (which at this point will only include the webinar). You will click on the event name to expand it and then click on the “recording” link. A new window will open up and you will be able to view the webinar.

When the recording is complete, a survey will appear after you close the event window. Please take a moment to fill out the survey. We value your feedback as it will help us to improve future educational offerings.

This webinar will be housed in the new STLE University, providing knowledge at your fingertips. The goal of the STLE University is to give you more knowledge, more access, and more value. It is your source for educational materials and products and your resource for furthering your career. Learn something today.
